

I vehemently support Title II for internet service providers.
Net neutrality is imperative for access to a fair and open internet.

Reclassifying will not only harm consumers and businesses, but will be impede development and innovation. It is critical that we maintain net neutrality!!!!